

It's About the Journey

San Juan Island Biking Adventure

Are you tired of the daily grind?
August 2 – 5, 2018

Who: Oregon Teen Pathfinders and Staff

What: Road Biking and possible Mountain Biking Adventure Weekend

Where: San Juan Islands, Washington state

Cost: $80. This includes food from Thursday evening thru Sunday lunch and lodging for the weekend.

When: Aug 2, check in at 6:00 pm. The program starts at 7:30pm.

The first night, Thursday, Aug 2 will be spent at Skagit Valley Adventist Academy 530 N Section St, Burlington, WA 98233

Registration: Register with the conference by July 18 for the early bird special. Late Registration will be an additional $10.00.

Lodging will be sleeping on a gym floor. Food will be provided for the group. All you need for camping is a sleeping bag, ground pad and tent. We provide the food and kitchen.

What to bring:

- A road or mountain bike. Rentals are available but must be set up in advance. Contact Glenn Campbell by July 18 for rentals. The cost of rentals for the weekend is yet to be determined.
- Helmet, Gloves, Jacket
- Water bottles
- Small daypack to carry stuff on your bike
- Bike tools (if you have them)
- Spare inner tube
- Portable tire pump (if you have one)
- Spare chain link for your chain
- First aid kit
- Flashlight
- Pant-leg straps or rubber bands
- Sleeping bag, ground pad, tent
- Extra clothes: For biking, Hiking, canoeing
- Swimming may be an option - so bring a swim suit

There will be multiple groups riding together. Groups will ride onto the ferry in Anacortes and bike to Orcas Island School. There will be a truck or van to haul gear and food and provide logistical support. Riders will only need to carry a day pack with food and water for the day. Riders will also be riding on another island. This is a road bike tour of the San Juan Islands.

Other activities will include but are not limited to mountain biking, kayaking, canoeing, hiking, walking on the beach, exploring the San Juan Islands, etc.

For more information call: Glenn Campbell at 503-693-6306 or email goodfood1@frontier.com.